Issue 5 - January 2008

Where did January go?!

Hi Everyone! I hope the New Year brought good things to you all, and wonder how many new years resolutions still stand? All of a sudden I have found myself in February and have lost January somewhere along the line! Whoops! Too many summer G&T's.

I missed the January rally, but I heard it was a good one, Karen & Cara report further in the newsletter. Who else is jumping for joy because competitions have finally started up again?! I for one am glad to be out competing again, I was getting a little bored practicing! It was nice to see fellow Rookie members and other HRC/V clubs out at Smythesdale ARC for their dressage jackpot. Big thumbs up to their club for biting the bullet and holding the event. Lets hope it will get the ball rolling on some more comps (horse trials..?!) Speaking of comps, we have TTT Combined Training approaching not to mention us hosting TTT Horse Trials and TTT Dressage, details further on in the newsletter.

We have some new babies of the four legged kind that are making their debut electronically this month. I had the privilege of meeting one of the cheeky sods recently - he was too big to snaffle under my coat home though...

As always I'm desperate for newsletter contribution, so email me some stories and gossip please. Surely you all have one exciting or horrible thing that happened that we can be entertained by?

See you at the Feb rally. Cheers for now, Lys

This month's cheeky cover star is Stacey & Peter's new addition to the family 'Divine' the gorgeous leggy colt. Born on Christmas Day 2007.

the hard questions... find out what makes our riders tick.

Name... Elysia (Lys) Baker

Occupation... Marketing Assistant at The Hanging Rock Winery

Hobbies... Other than horses, I Salsa dance

Favourite Food... Greek, or a gourmet BBQ!

Favourite Music... My iPod has everything you could imagine on it... Dave Matthews Band to Michael Jackson, U2 to Millencolin to Gipsy Kings.

Most Embarrassing Situation... Horse wise... My stack at Wandin's HT's trakener. 'Here comes Lys... oh... nope... just Digger...' And.. at my first ever level assessment for HRCav, the assessor asked me to canter. Digger did the tiniest pigroot and I fell on my head in front of her...

I wish I'd never worn... Skivvies & tracksuit pants in combination with black Dr.Martin school shoes complete with hair scrunchies.

Friends say I am... Loyal, easy going, horse mad and funny when I'm drunk...

Ambitions... Currently... to compete at Melbourne Three Day Event on my young horse Murphy.

Current Horse... Anzac Cove (Digger) & TSH Highland Murphy

Horses Details... Digger: Thoroughbred, brown, 15.3h, 12yrs, eventing Level 2 and a little bit mental. Murphy: Irish Sport Horse, Brown, 16h so far, 3yrs, a darling!

What age did you start riding... I was sitting on horses since I was a baby, started riding 'Muffet' my naughty Welshie at about 3-4yrs.

If you were a horse describe yourself (name, colour, breed, etc)... Friendly temperament, amazing 'look at moi' presence, fabulous movement, and talented in all three eventing disciplines.

Happy New Year To All!
January 2008 - By Karen & Cara

We can all thank God that we got good weather not toooooo hot and certainly not toooooo cold, good old Bullengarook knows when we are riding! We had three instructors Tori, Chris and Paul. The day started better for some than others dear old Bourbon put himself through a fence at home trying to get to some pretty ladies on the other side - he should really think about his age and the fact he is a gelding. Then Georgia was saddled and all ready to go only to find her young bloke was also lame so out for her as well. I would like to make some smart remark about vet bills but as Cara's horse was also lame, and the vet was called at a later date... ching ching ching... we all know that sound so moving right along...

It was great to see everyone back and having a good time. With only one horse at club I took the chance to ask as many members as possible how their day was and the feedback was great - I don't think I heard a bad word regarding anything from anyone - 'Hmmm a bit boring, could make it up, but may be challenged at a later date' so we'll go with the general opinion that F#*>K do we know how to run a rally!! (That would be Deb and me of course).

Our Princess in PINK, yes, that would be you Bec, rode two flat and a jump and made it all look to easy... but will it be so easy next rally when Jane (her Mum) rides? Will Jane get all that grooming and attention that Bec gets? We will all wait and see! And of course our head PRINCESS, yes that would be you Stacey, was her usual self... 'hey Tori look at me, look at me!!! Look at my horse look at me!!!'

With late change in instructors many of us were taken out of our comfort zone and it was great to see everyone took on board new ideas and different ways of thinking. It must be the New Year hangover or something as it was all too easy!

It has come to my attention that one of our members (who shall remain nameless) YEAH RIGHT! Like that was going too happen! Sorry Fi (as we have a couple that would be you Fi Kelsall) has yet another new horse and pretty damned good by all accounts. So lets hope this is 'the one' as there is a name we have for people like you, maybe not for the newsletter though... ;-)

Lunch as always was a feast, a little over shadowed by the arrival of Kerryn and two of the most gorgeous little four legged creatures... Two new cuties from Project Hope, so cute I don't think there was one of us who wouldn't have popped them under our wing and taken them home. Not that they needed a good feed the opposite in fact but that doesn't alter the cute factor.

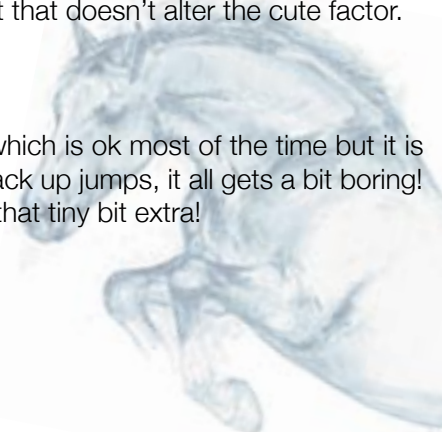

So til next time safe and happy riding! Love Karen & Cara

Just a ramble from the writer... As with all clubs it is the same people that do the most, which is ok most of the time but it is the same people every rally that bring milk, organise the gas, bring the water, set up and pack up jumps, it all gets a bit boring! So as it is a club that we all belong too, how about we all lift our game a bit and all just do that tiny bit extra!

Anyone have anything to whine about? What gave you the sh*ts this month?

Ten things that drove Lys nuts this month...

1. Drivers that can't merge - f*&k!! It's not that hard!!
2. A telecommunications person hung up on me
3. People who always whine about having something wrong with them - slap!
4. Argh, enough with news on Wayne, Ben and Britney!
5. Stupid people in general
6. Crap email forwards
7. Woodends crap supermarket
8. Grey's Anatomy still hasn't started on TV
9. When I ran out of Gin
10. Digger!

If you are wanting to compete in this event could you please let Stacey know asap and arrange payment to me so we can organise teams. We also need to supply one non-competing volunteer per team, so please keep that in mind.

HRC AV Top Team Trophy Horse Trials 2008 (We are the hosts)

Date: 12th & 13th July.

Where: Werribee Park

We desperately need sponsorship - as a bare minimum can each member please obtain sponsorship for one cross country jump. Letter attached all you need to do is make a few phone calls & fill in the blanks - all the work is done for you. We also need some co-ordinators for things, like the helpers, and the judges etc. Can I please get somebody to take these on board, judges are currently being booked.

HRC AV Top Team Trophy Dressage 2008 (We are the hosts of this too...)

Date: 15th & 16th November.

Where: Werribee Park

As with the Horse Trials, we will need sponsorship for this event also. Or if you had previously obtained sponsorship can you follow it up please.

Then we retire from hosting comps!

Smythesdale ARC Dressage Jackpot

By Lys

Hurrah! Competition one... tick! It was lovely to be back in the saddle competing again. There were about seven members from Bullengarook ARC that made the small hike over to Smythesdale ARC for their dressage jackpot. I wasn't particularly impressed with the fact they scheduled Sarah at 10am and 10.50am, with my times scheduled for 4.50pm & 5.20pm! (I had The Police concert in Melbourne the night before - argh) But we put up with it!

I didn't get to see Kirby ride as she was on early morning, however she must have blitzed her level 3 tests, winning both, and the overall jackpot for her section! Earlier in the morning I saw Sarah and Yvonne ride their level 5 tests at the same time as googling over Kylie's baby Charli who came for a short visit. Sarah managed to get Khy moving and pulled off a great first test, and no pigroots or halts facing E to mention. Yvonne looked very confident and smart, with her partner in tow for some support. Both riders had obviously been working hard, earning placings in a couple of tests.

Fi got off to a shaky start on Tonnie when some ignorant people in the next door property decided it might be time to do a punk-style drum solo. Tonnie doesn't like drums much.... Obviously frustrated Fi went on to ace the second test with ease... Except when she mis-heard her caller (me) mistaking P for E, therefore I decided to sound as much like a dihead as possible for the rest of her test and say loudly 'at E for EGG, 20mtr circle diameter.... at C for CAT, halt immobility three seconds...' It probably wasn't necessary, but I decided to put myself out there as King Dic* for you Fi - thank me later.

Stacey and Pepe had a busy day of four tests, riding two at level 3, and two at level 2. She was happy with some of her tests, stating a personal best on one of her level two's, only to be dissatisfied with the judges score. Pepe looked in fine form and well recovered after his minor injury and they finished the day with some ribbons.

Karen & Cara turned up later in the morning, though with just one horse, as Cara's Britt had injured himself. Karen and McGill scrubbed up immaculate, and I started giving her a hard time about diagonals. Afterwards when I asked her how she'd done, the only words were 'I DID IT!' Awesome Karen!

Peter was riding Sammy and did two nice calm level 3 tests, only to cop the brunt of a Stacey scream when he mis-heard one of her calls. I followed shortly after (thank goodness it was about an hour ahead of my scheduled time), only to do one nice test, then the wind must have changed and I suddenly found myself a top a fresh, tense, two year old Thoroughbred named Digger who decided he'd really like to try and canter up the centre line entry. We somehow pulled it off without too much of a disaster. Needless to say I was not happy with test two, and I think everyone knew about it, muttering about wasted money, and good for dog food... I apologised to my horse shortly afterwards when I had controlled my mammoth temper..!

All in all we had a great day out, it was lovely to see everyone out competing again. The horses were primed, ribbons were won, Stacey drank bubbles, and then we all went merrily, merrily, merrily all the way home...

comresults!!

Finally after a long wait I have some competition results to report!!
