Rally report

March rally saw our keen members ride in rain, rain and more rain, thunder and just to finish it off lightning.

The first time any of our riders remember being asked to stop riding lessons due to adverse weather. Our instructors Anne, Tori and John were all troopers and as soon as the rain subsided they recommenced lessons now that's dedication! Lunch was as usual yum!

Don't know how happy Brenda and Drew were but Niki learned how to really play in puddles with a little instruction from some members who should know better, perhaps Drew and Bren should just consider bringing her wardrobe to future rallies.

One of our riders who shall remain nameless had no choice but to strip off and show her pins to all while she waited for a change of clothes.

Even with the delay caused by the rain were all done by lunchtime and packed up to change soggy clothes and that concluded a very wet March rally. Niki's face just sums up our rally.

Thrills and spills features this month Pucci.

RIDERS IN THE STAND By Banjo Paterson

There's some that ride the Robbo style, and bump at every stride;
While others sit a long way back, to get a longer ride.
There's some that ride like sailors do, with legs, and arms, and teeth;
And some ride on the horse's neck, and some ride underneath.

But all the finest horsemen out – the men to bear the band-
You'll find amongst the crowd that ride their races in the stand.
They'll say, "He had the race in hand, and lost it in the straight".
They'll show how Godby came too soon, and Barden came too late.

They'll say Chevalley lost his nerve, and Regan lost his head;
They'll tell how one was "livened up" and something else was "dead"-
In fact, the race was never run on sea, or sky, or land,
But what you'd get it better done by riders in the stand.

The rule holds good in everything in life's uncertain fight;
You'll find the winner can't go wrong, the loser can't go right.
You ride a slashing race, and lose – by one and all you're banned!
Ride like a bag of flour, and win – they'll cheer you in the stand.
